THE FOUTZ FAMILY

Hans Michael Pfauts arrived in America in 1727, with his two sons, - Conrad (Jacob) Pfauts and Michael Pfauts. Previously they had lived in or near Switzerland, and had sailed on the ship William and Sarah, arriving in Pennsylvania, Lancaster County, at Philadelphia on September 18, 1727. He resided at Germantown (now a suburb of Philadelphia). (Germantown was formerly called Germanapolis).

The lines of only two sons are listed in the John Eby Pfauts pamphlet, viz., Conrad (should be Jacob) of Strassburg Twp., Lancaster County, Pa., all of whose descendants listed remain in Pennsylvania, - and Michael.

- A. MICHAEL PFAUTZ - son of Hans Michael Pfauts, - was born May 15, 1709, and died on March 21, 1787. A history of the Church of the Brethren gives his birth as May 21, 1707, and his death as May 14, 1780. This discrepancy comes, no doubt, from inability to read the tombstone inscriptions clearly.

Michael married Catherine Hoff, who was born in 1711, and who died in 1789. She is said to have lived in Coventry Twp., Chester County, Pa. (although this was not verified). She is buried at Middle Creek, Ephrata, Pennsylvania.

Michael and Catherine Hoff Pfauts had the following children: 1. John Pfauts 2. Margaret Catherine Pfautz (Mrs. Andreas Hoover) 3. Michael Pfauts 4. Jacob Pfauts.

JOHN FOUTS, Sr. - son of Michael and Catherine Hoff Fouts, - was born in Pennsylvania, around the year 1730, no doubt; and his death is thought to have occurred on November 11, 1813. His wife's name may have been Elisabeth.

He emigrated from Pennsylvania to North Carolina probably around 1760 when his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andreas Hoover, made their journey to that State. It is quite possible, however, that he may have moved any time between the years 1765 to 1780, as his son, John Fouts, Jr., was married in North Carolina in 1769.

John Fouts, Sr., and his wife had the following ten children:

1. Jacob Fouts.
2. David Fouts.
3. Jonas Fouts.
4. John Fouts, Jr.
5. Magdalene Fouts.
6. Susan Fouts.
7. Catharina Fouts.
8. Andrew Fouts.
9. Elisabeth Fouts.
10. Esther Fouts.

1. Jacob Fouts - son of John Fouts, Sr., - married Mahinda ~~Mary Magdalene~~ Wayne, He was born in North Carolina, but moved to Montgomery County, Ohio, in the early 1800's. Jacob and Mahinda ~~Mary Magdalene~~ Fouts had the following SIX (6) children:

1. William Fouts - born May 15, 1781. Died in 1843. He lived in Boston, Wayne County, Indiana. His wife, Sarah, was born in 1777 and died in 1833.

2. Mary Fouts Bulla (Mrs. Thomas) - born died in 1806. He died in 1865. m. 7/31/185

3. Jacob Fouts - b. 1798 - d. 1874. Married Eleanor Dougan (1790-1853). m. 9/12/18

4. Elisabeth Fouts Harvey (Mrs. Benjamin)

5. Levi Fouts (1796-1875) married (1) Sarah Small (1798-1857) married (2) Amelia King Stewart (1822-1874).

1. Mary E. Fouts - dau. of Levi and Sarah Ann, d. 8-3-1855, aged 2y, 10m, 15 d. Bethel Cemetery, southwest of Economy, Indiana.

2. Jacob Fouts

[The text on this page is extremely faint and illegible. It appears to be a multi-paragraph document, possibly a letter or a report, with several lines of text visible across the page. The content cannot be transcribed accurately.]

The members of the early Fouts families were of devout religious faith, and belonged to the Church of the Brethren (Dunkards), sometimes called German Baptists. Quite a colony of these Brethren had moved from Pennsylvania to North Carolina, but because they were opposed to slavery, they decided to migrate to Ohio around 1802 and 1803, when that State was opened for settlement.

William Dulla was jovial, fond of dancing and music, and was the center of the social life of his community. His parents were Quakers. When he was 19 he married Mary Fouts, by whom he had three children. William and Mary came to Ohio in 1804, where Mary died.

Her children and husband, who remarried, along with her brothers, William and Jacob, came on to Wayne County, Indiana, around Boston, and Jacob moved on farther west.

According to the tombstone inscription in the old Schaeffer State Rd. Cemetery, MICHAEL FOUTS died March 31, 1858, aged 87 years, 6 months, 29 days. His wife, Elizabeth Fouts, died Feb. 20, 1853, aged 81 years, 6 months, 10 days.

JOHN FOUTS, JR. - son of John Fouts, Sr., - was born March 8, 1747. His will was recorded in Montgomery County, Ohio, on March 11, 1822 (Book A, page 225). His tombstone indicates that he was 75 years old at the time of his death.

He married Mary Younce who was born October 12, 1757; died June 12, 1812. She is buried in the old cemetery called State Line cemetery in German Twp., Montgomery County, Ohio, between Gratis and Germantown, Ohio. Her marriage bond was made on August 31, 1769, in Rowan County, North Carolina. Daniel Little and Thomas Frohook were bondsmen for John Fouts and Mary Younce.

John Fouts, Jr. and Mary Younce Fouts had the following ten (10) children:

They had the following 13 children:

1. Elias Fouts - son of Michael and Elizabeth Sinka Fouts, - was born March 20, 1792, and died October 12, 1875. On May 2, 1813, he married Mary (Polly) Shafer, who was born January 15, 1793, and died October 23, 1865. Residence: Liberty Twp., Henry County, Indiana, since 1919. Elias and Mary Shafer Fouts had the following 12 children:

It is a very common mistake to suppose that the only way of knowing the truth is by the use of the senses. But this is not so.

There are many other ways of knowing the truth.

For example, we can know the truth by the use of reason and logic.

And we can also know the truth by the use of the imagination.

For the imagination is a very powerful faculty, and it can help us to see the truth in a new way.

And finally, we can know the truth by the use of the heart.

For the heart is the seat of our emotions, and it can help us to feel the truth in a new way.

And so, we can see that there are many ways of knowing the truth.

And we can see that the use of the senses is only one of them.

And we can see that the use of reason and logic is another.

And we can see that the use of the imagination is another.

And we can see that the use of the heart is another.

And we can see that all of these ways of knowing the truth are different, but they are all valid.

And we can see that the use of the senses is not the only way of knowing the truth.

And we can see that the use of reason and logic is not the only way of knowing the truth.

And we can see that the use of the imagination is not the only way of knowing the truth.

And we can see that the use of the heart is not the only way of knowing the truth.

And we can see that all of these ways of knowing the truth are different, but they are all valid.

And we can see that the use of the senses is not the only way of knowing the truth.

And we can see that the use of reason and logic is not the only way of knowing the truth.

IV. JACOB PFAUTZ

IV. JACOB PFAUTZ - son of Michael and Catherine Hoff Pfautz, - was born in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. He married Mary Bach, and lived in Berks County, Pennsylvania. His wife, Mary Bach Pfautz, is buried in Ferny Cemetery, Jefferson Twp., Montgomery County, Ohio. She died December 11, 1810, aged 73 years and 14 days.

Of all of Michael Pfautz's sons, Jacob and his descendants adhered most completely to the family's religious connection with the Church of the Brethren. Jacob's brothers, John, and Michael, however, after the migration to Ohio from North Carolina, changed their name to "Fouts" - and drifted away from the old Dunkard faith by becoming members of other denominations.

The name of Pfautz (Phouts) is a worthy one in the history of the Church of the Brethren in Maryland, Pennsylvania and Ohio. The family line from Michael, through his son, Jacob, and then on down to the present, has added much to the progress and spiritual welfare of that Church.

Jacob and Mary Bach Pfautz had the following children:

1. Peter Phouts - came from Pennsylvania to Ohio with his 3rd brother (probably, Samuel). He died in 1837 (?). He married Susan Gaby, and they lived in Perry Twp., Montgomery County, Ohio. This Peter Pfouts purchased 1,000 acres of U. S. land in Perry Twp., beginning 1817. He is listed on the Government Books as of Virginia. It is said that he spent his last days in Preble County, Ohio. Peter and Susan Gaby Pfouts had four children:

1. Martin Pfouts - son of Peter and Susan Gaby Pfouts, - was born in 1797 in Maryland. He died after 1881, somewhere in Indiana. He was a manufacturer in Lanier Twp., Preble County, Ohio, in 1850. His second wife, Sarah Verhoos Stover, (her second marriage, also) was born in 1810 in Ohio. Martin had children by both wives:

1. Peter Pfouts - son of Martin Pfouts, - was born in 1830, in Ohio. About 1850 he married Elisabeth _____.

2. Samuel Pfouts - was the son of Martin Pfouts.

3. Effie Pfouts - married Mr. White.

4. Susanna Pfouts - married Mr. Wagoner.

5. Rachel Pfouts - born in 1835, married Mr. Itson.

6. Jacob Pfouts - was born in 1837.

• • • • •

7. Martin Pfouts - was born in 1838 (?) in Ohio. His wife, Susannah, was born in 1820. They had one child.

1. Sarah Pfouts - was born in 1849.

8. Phileas (Christena) Pfouts - was born in 1839, in Ohio. She married David Crull, by whom she had the following 8 children:

1. Clara Crull - b. October 3, 1872.

2. Ella Crull - b. January 3, 1874.

3. Laura Crull - b. November 23, 1875.
